

Seize Suspect Counterfeiter At Orland Park

A man charged with possessing counterfeit $5 bills failed to appear when his case was called for trial in the U.S. District court at Chicago Oct. 17 and a bench warrant was issued.

Last Friday forenoon Police Commissioner Frank Guetter of Orland Park heard a police broadcast describing the man and the car he was in with two other persons. The car was a yellow and white Chevrolet and the license number, LJ-4039. It had last been reported in the vicinity of U.S. 66 and Harlem ave.

A few minutes later Guetter spotted the car in front of a tavern at 143rd and LaGrange road. He called county police and was told not to go in until help arrived as it was believed the wanted man might be dangerous.

The commissioner waited until the first squad car rolled up and then went in the tavern alone. He found two men and a woman and placed them under arrest. No attempt at resistance was made and Guetter quickly ascertained that there were no weapons.

The trio was turned over to county police who in turn handed them over to U.S. Secret Service agents. The man wanted to stand trial is Daniel R. Wolfe, alias Daniel R. McShane, 49 who gave his address as 4657

W. End ave., Chicago. With him were his wife, Margaret Wolfe, 21, who gave her address as 1852 N. Damen ave., Chicago, and Ezra Harding, 50, General Delivery, Paris, Tenn.

The government released Mrs. Wolfe and Harding but county police held the latter while they ran a check to see if he was clear.

According to information from the Secret Service bureau Wolfe was arrested March 28, 1961. At the time of his arrest he is alleged to have had between $100 and $200 in counterfeit $5 bills in his possession. His trial was set to begin Oct. 17 but Wolfe wasn't there. Authorities indicated that he would be on hand when the new trial date is set.

When Guetter notified County police squads were rushed to Orland Park by County, state, Tinley Park, Willow Springs and Justice Park.

Load Limit Bars Jensen Rd Bridge To N.L. School Bus

The problem bridge in New Lenox township on Marley Rd., also known as Jensen Rd., was surveyed this week by members of the state department of highways at the request of the New Lenox grade school board.

The bridge, a topic of discussion during the school board's last two meetings, was replaced this past summer after being washed out earlier this year. When the bridge was replaced, it was marked with a four-ton load limit.

This presents a problem to the New Lenox school board in that the school bus carries a weight sign of five tons and cannot go across the bridge. Consequently, in order to pick up the children, the bus must go approximately six miles out of the way every day. This causes an additional expenditure of money and time.

John Oster, superintendent of the New Lenox schools, requested James McCarthy, county superintendent of highways, to write the state division of highways, asking the department to bring equipment and re-test the bridge.

Monday of last week a re-survey of the bridge was made and McCarthy said he expected a letter from the state, making an analysis and recommendation the latter part of this week.

One resident living on the road said he observed a truck, loaded with brick, weighing an estimated 12 to 14 tons, cross the bridge.

Other business at the school board meeting included allowing substitute teachers a pay raise from $15 to $17.50 a day. The board will ask for bids for bleacher seats in the Oakview gymnasium to seat 200.

The board is considering the folding type. The board is also considering a rental fee for the Oakview gym, after exploring fees charged by other schools.

Future plans include a meeting of the faculty and board members tentatively set for next month.

Woman Injured In Car Collision

A Mokena woman escaped serious injury Saturday night when the car in which she was riding was struck from the rear on East Jackson St. in Joliet.

Taken to St. Joseph's hospital, Joliet, for X-rays and released was Mrs. Thyra Nyman, who was in a car driven by her son, Leslie, Route 1, Mokena. Mrs. Nyman complained of pain in her neck and back.

The Nyman auto was struck by a car operated by Mrs. Natalie Dinoffre of Elmhurst Rd., Joliet. She was ticketed by Joliet city police for failure to have her car under control.

L-W Seniors Plan Car Wash

The senior class of Lincoln Way high school will have a car wash Saturday, Oct. 28, in the afternoon at Smith's gasoline station in Frankfort. Seniors will wash cars for $1.50 each.

Proceeds will be used for the senior class gift to the school and its annual trip.

Standing (1 to r): Wilbur Brookman, Charles Turnbough, James Walsh; (seated) Dale Meyer and Ronald Heisner.

LW Group Is Winner Of Top Parliamentary Honors

The Lincoln-Way high school Future Farmers of America parliamentary team won the Section Eight parliamentary contest at Minooka, last week. This was the second straight win for Lincoln-Way and the third in the last four years.

It was more than a team win however. Said Robert Van Rheeden, Vocational agriculture instructor at Lincoln-Way, "It was the first time in twenty-two years of teaching in the state that a team won every possible first and it probably will be a long time before a team does it again."

Lincoln-Way won everything. Dale Meyer was awarded the gold medal as he was voted the top chairman in the contest. Ron Heisner received the gold medal as the best secretary. Charles Turnbough won the other individual award as the outstanding floor group member. Jim Walsh and Wilbur Brookman rounded out the team. These young men were instrumental in Lincoln-Way winning the final award as the first place floor team.

Minooka finished a distant second with Lockport in third place not really in the contention.

Eighteen schools are in section eight in the FFA apportionment from Will, DuPage, Grundy and Ford Counties.

The parliamentary contest is based upon running a business meeting according to ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER.

The five man team from Lincoln-Way did not receive any special training beyond the classroom.

"All of the boys in the ag department get an equal amount of class time in the area of running and participating in a business meeting," Van Rheeden stated.

UNICEF Drive Is On, Saturday Sunday Nights

A reminder has been issued for area residents to have their porches turned on Saturday and Sunday evenings, when the youth of the communities make a door-to-door collection for UNICEF.

The MYF of the Orland Park Methodist church will ring doorbells Saturday night. Sunday night callers will be youngsters from the New Lenox churches, youth groups from Frankfort churches, junior high people from the Homer church and children from first thru fifth grades of the Willow Crest school at Mokena.

The children will be wearing UNICEF armbands and carrying containers with a similar symbol. Money collected in the annual Halloween "treat" event will be used to assist less fortunate children of other countries.

Pancake Supper The men of the Holy Name Society of St. Jude's church, New Lenox, will serve a pancake supper Nov. 4, in the school hall. Serving is to begin at 5 o'clock and continue until they run out of customers, according to the committee in charge. There will be sausage and coffee with the cakes and all for the price of $1 for adults and 65 cents for children.

BACK TO STANDARD time next Sunday will go this and all other clocks in Illinois if they would show the correct hour. This particular clock has been recording the time for Mrs. Blanche Mitchell, of Frankfort, for the past 44 years. It was given to her in 1917 as a wedding gift by her father, the late Paul Populorum, a native of France. It is a handsome timepiece, with an exterior of solid mahogany, and an excellent time keeper. Mrs. Mitchell will turn the clock back an hour before retiring Saturday night.

Remember Turn Clocks Back On Saturday Night

Come Sunday, Oct. 29, and clocks and watches will be turned back an hour in Illinois and standard central time will supplant the daylight saving variety.

Clocks were set ahead an hour last April and one lost an hour of sleep. Theoretically one gains this back by turning one's clock back an hour upon retiring Saturday night. Practically, however, the hour is gone because if one looks at his clock Saturday night and it shows midnight he probably says:

"Mmm, why that is only 11:00 so I may as well stay up a little longer."

Turning the clock back means that it will be darker when one goes home — say at 5 o'clock, but lighter if he is one of those that has to take a train or a long drive to be at work around 8 a.m.

Officially the time change takes place at 2 a.m. Sunday morning. Church services will be back on standard time Sunday morning so those who neglect to reset their clocks Saturday night could be there an hour early.

Daylight savings time formerly expired the last Sunday in September but several years ago it was extended to the last Sunday in October. Bills introduced at the regular session of the state legislature this year which would restore the time of change to September failed to carry.

COMPLETES COURSE Army Capt. Arthur J. Bradshaw, son of Martin M. Bradshaw, 902 Pine St., New Lenox, recently completed the associate officer career course at the Infantry school, Fort Benning, Ga. He entered the army in 1949 and was last stationed in Korea.

HOMEcoming QUEEN at Lincoln-Way high school this year was Arlene Lauffer, a senior from New Lenox. The three members of her court shown in the lower photo are representatives of the other three classes. Left to right, they are: Janet Summers, a junior; Jeanine Peters, a sophomore, and Dawn Cleary, a freshman.

Burglars Get $50 Cash, Ring In Mokena Breakins

Two burglaries, believed to have been the work of teenagers, took place last Thursday night. Approximately $50 in cash was taken, a woman's ring, a billfold and a key ring.

The home of Michael Derrig, Third st., in the village, was entered sometime between 8:30 and 9 o'clock, while the family was shopping, according to Mokena Police Chief Vernon Bormet.

The other break-in was at the home of Felix Highfell, 11411 W. 192nd st., Sunny Acres. That occurred between 7 and 8 o'clock. The Highfells also were shopping. Sheriff's deputies, Gus Hendrickson and Clarence Martin, who investigated the case, said entry was gained thru the kitchen.

The bedrooms were ransacked and all the drawers emptied. A purse belonging to Mrs. Highfell yielded $40 and ten $1 bills were also taken from a drawer. A zircon ring owned by Mrs. Highfell was taken and a new billfold, the property of Mr. Highfell.

At the Derrig home the burglars apparently tried to enter thru a patio door, Chief Bormet said, but succeeded only in breaking a screen door. They went in thru the basement, damaging a dryer in the process. The thieves ransacked the three bedrooms, littering the floor with the contents of dresser drawers, apparently searching for money.

The only thing taken in the Derrig home was a firehydrant bank, owned by Gayle Derrig, a student at Lincoln-Way. The amount of money in the bank was unknown.

In both homes mud was tracked thru all the rooms and considerable damage was done to carpets and rugs.

Former Mokena Resident Dies

Funeral services were held Saturday at the Hirsch funeral chapel in Tinley Park for Frank Brockmann, 84, who died Thursday, Oct. 19 at the Kosary Nursing home in Tinley Park.

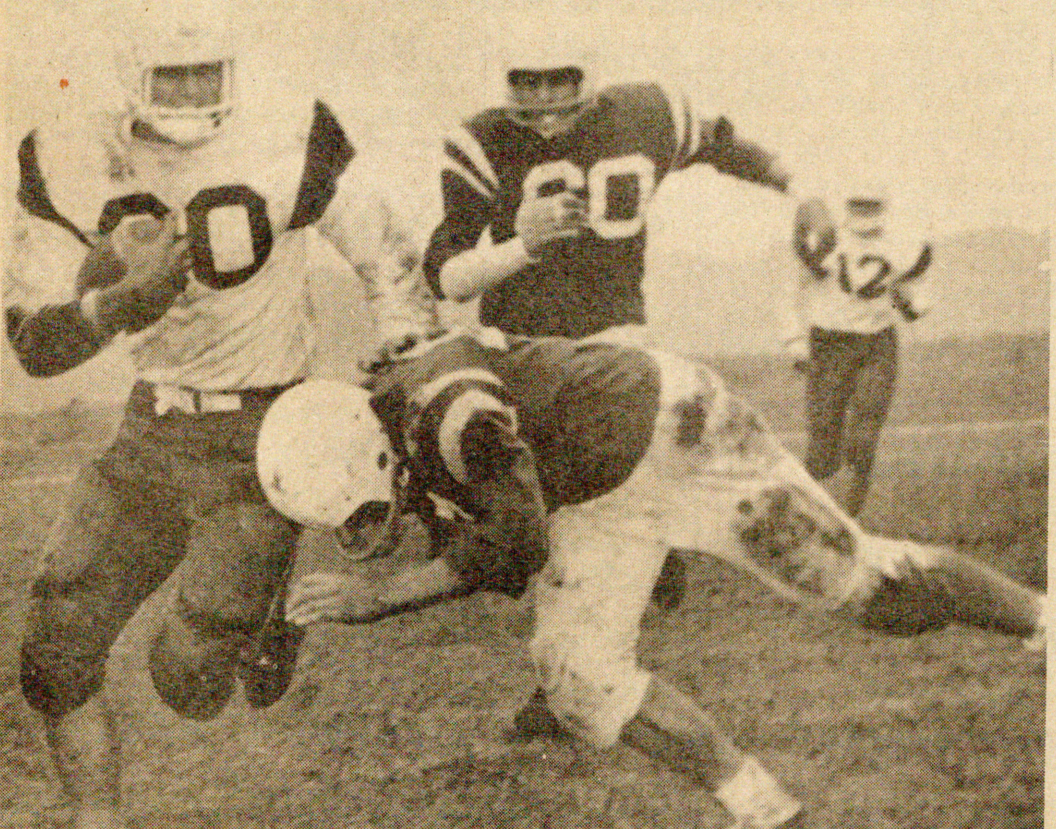

The Rev. William Riemann officiated. Burial was in Concordia cemetery at Hammond, Ind.

Mr. Brockmann had been a patient in the nursing home the past 17 months, having suffered a stroke several years ago. He was born in Chicago on Feb. 23, 1877, and was an electrician by trade. He retired 12 years ago and, with his wife, Emma, who survives him, made his home with his daughter, Edna, Mrs. Henry Clark, of Mokena.

Mr. and Mrs. Brockmann observed their 59th wedding anniversary last June. He was a member of the Immanuel Lutheran church of Mokena.

In addition to his wife and Mrs. Clark, Mr. Brockmann is survived by two sons, Ervin W. of South Bend, Ind., and Mearl W. of Springfield, Mo.; seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

GAINING GROUND—That's what Ron Yunker, of Mokena, No. 20, has been doing all season at Lincoln-Way and frequently those jaunts have resulted in touchdowns but at the homecoming game against Homewood - Flossmoor on the Knights home tilting yard Ron nor any other teammate was able to cross the visitors' goal and the game wound up with Lincoln-Way on the short end of a 19 to 0 score. That big fellow from Flossmoor wearing No. 60 on his jersey is Stephen Berg. Lincoln-Way's No. 12 is Kurt Fredin.

NEW SECTION of restored bridge on Jensen road. The New Lenox grade school board hopes a re-study of the structure by engineers will find the span can carry more than four ton, the present assigned load limit. The school bus weighs in at five tons. Not being able to use the bridge makes it necessary to detour some six miles.

FUTURE TEACHERS Lincoln-Way representatives of the Future Teachers of America attended an annual workshop at Thornridge high school on Oct. 14. Those who attended were Linda Wilkosz, Arlene Lauffer, Ann Lembke, Dennis Porick, John Pester, Cheryl Stoner, and Carol Wilson. The sponsors were Mr. Mackay and Mrs. Pester.

Purpose of the workshop was to acquaint the FTA members with the various areas of teaching. This was done by dividing the students into interest groups during the morning session. The areas attended by Lincoln-Way students were upper grade teaching, social sciences, English, mathematics, physical education, science, and fine arts. After lunch the schools of region 2 were introduced. Our own state treasurer, John Pester, was introduced also. Then a panel of foreign students discussed the various differences in school systems. They represented the countries of France, Germany, Mexico, and Denmark. The main point emphasized was that of mutual understanding between the world's students.

Personal Property Taxes

Collection of personal property taxes would ease the financial troubles of many taxing bodies, but collecting them is a difficult thing.

To begin with the personal property tax is as unpopular in this area as is the tax on liquor among the hill people of the southeast.

The fact that both taxes are legal and constitutional makes no difference to some people. They don't like them and they won't pay them unless forced.

The state's attorney's office is charged with forcing collection of personal property taxes. Going to court to collect taxes is a slow method. With the new status for justices of the peace, they now being county officials and paid from county funds, some counties have chosen to use them to expedite the suing of tax delinquent personal property owners.

In Will county two of the J. P. have challenged their jurisdiction in such cases and have asked the courts to decide the question. The Will county circuit court has ruled J.P.'s have jurisdiction in collecting personal property taxes and the J.P.'s challenging have appealed to the appellate court.

In Cook county the state's attorney's office has assigned these delinquent tax cases to various J.P.'s. Up to date none has declined to act, at least not in this area.

Any attempt to collect personal property taxes from individuals is new for Cook county. It was an old custom in Cook county to excuse individuals from payment of personal property taxes, unless of course they persisted in ignoring a precinct captain's instructions as to how to vote. Corporations and business firms paid personal taxes but that was about all.

Payment of personal property taxes in Will county is becoming more of a problem every year. Some believe that the increased influx of people from Cook county into Will county is responsible in part, at least. Such persons had not been accustomed to paying such taxes, it was explained, and saw no reason to change their ways. Their attitude is said to have been contagious in some areas and more and more persons refrained from paying personal property taxes.

Some persons who do not pay the tax week to excuse themselves on the grounds that the tax is not legal and it is not uniform and therefore unfair.

The tax is legal alright and while it is not uniform, and granted it may not be fair, there are a lot of taxes that fall into that category. Persons who believe their tax is unfair can appeal to the county board of review.

Perhaps the personal property tax law should be re-written or repealed but until such action is taken it is the law and should be obeyed. If all the personal property tax were collected many taxing bodies, now operating in the red, could meet their bills.

On Second Thought

By GLENN F. LOGAN

"Seeking something for nothing is a disease that has swept the world and there are no signs of it abating. It is too bad." So spoke the Bourbon Oracle, Mr. P. Jefferson Throttlebottom, who has gained considerable renown as a freeloader. He was occupying the best chair, smoking one of my cigars and in the absence of his favorite refreshment was sipping a cup of coffee poured from the office pot.

"You must be a pretty sick man yourself," I suggested, thinking of Jeff's Knack of wangling this or possibly that to add to his comfort and well being.

He shrugged this aside with becoming modesty.

"Oh, I manage to pick up a little something now and again," P. Jefferson admitted, "but actually it isn't something for nothing. I assure you that one can expend as much energy and thought on successfully acquiring things without work as in working for them."

"I know that sometimes after I have had a difficult day in which my ingenuity has been practically exhausted I have even thought of going to work. I believe it would be easier."

P. Jefferson paused to replenish his cup.

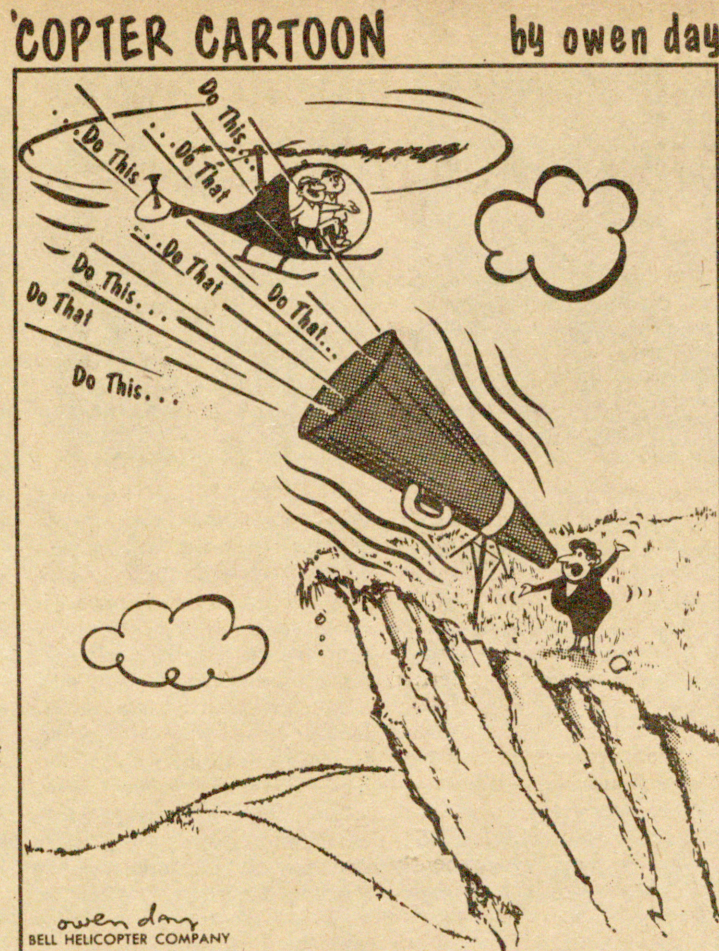

"Besides," he went on, "my wants are simple and I keep them limited. Some people who want something for nothing want too much. If they did find a pot of gold at the foot of a rainbow the pot would be too small."

"You see this illustrated in the attitude of the foreign countries we aid. If anyone ever got something for nothing it is a recipient of our foreign aid but are they satisfied? Of course not. They believe they are entitled to more."

"This foreign aid we give is really something for nothing. The countries that get it for the most part don't even give us lip service in return. All the putting out is on our part."

"There are some people who look upon gambling as a source of something for nothing money, a rank fallacy as any student of games and ventures governed by chance will testify. There is a lot of work to gambling, whether it is the stock market, real estate transactions, horse playing, card playing or crap shooting. When you win, it seems to me you have earned it."

Jeff lit a fresh cigar, puffed at it for a few moments and continued.

"Well, Don, you think you have a nagging wife..."

"When I speak of gambling," he said, "I am speaking of fields in which — played on the level — one has a chance to win as well as to lose although the odds of losing are higher than of winning. I am not referring to fixed games."

"For example, take a look at those jar games one finds in some saloons and clubs. They were installed to supplant the slot machines."

"In these jar games one draws a slip of paper from a container. There are figures printed on the paper. Those ending in a certain digit—seven appears to be the choice in these parts—are winners. One can win from a dollar up — if the winning numbers are in the jar."

"In most instances, according to friends of mine who operate such games, the winning numbers come in a separate envelope so it is up to the operator and his conscience as to how many go in the jar."

"In some instances the jars come with two complete sets of number so to reduce the number of payouts the operator goes thru the slips first eliminating one set of winners."

Hints For Homeowners

ASS'T FARM ADVISER

Whether you are planting a new home, adding to established plantings or replacing overgrown plants, this is the time to plant trees and shrubs. Purchase your plants from a reliable nursery. Make sure large plants and evergreens are balled and burlapped. The ball should be firm and in proportion to the size of the plant. Many bushes and small trees can be bare root.

If the plants cannot be set out immediately after purchase they should be put in the shade and watered. Dig holes for planting at least one and one-half times the diameter and at least the depth of the ball on the plant. If the drainage is poor, some provision must be made to get excess water away from the plants. Set the plant in the hole so that the top of the ball is at ground level. Cut any ropes around the stem of the plant but do not remove the burlap. Replace the rest of the soil, tamping to firm it as the hole is filled. When the hole is filled to the level of the ball, use the remaining soil to form a ring around the edge of the hole. This ring will help to hold water during rains or when the plant is watered. Immediately after planting, soak the plant, even though the soil may already be wet. This is to settle the soil around the ball. The plant should be watered carefully for the first year including during the winter, if there is no snow or rain. But also be careful not to over water yews, pines, and spruces.

Some young deciduous trees such as hard maples are susceptible to sunscald which cracks the bark of the trunk during winter. Wrap these trees with a good treated paper and tie it securely.

Stake tall trees to keep them from blowing over during high winds. It is usually necessary to support large trees from all sides. Small trees can be held with two tall stakes driven into the ground on either side of the trunk. Whatever method is used, be sure to protect the trunk of the tree from the support wires. One of the best methods is to run the wire through cut up sections of garden hose any place they contact the tree.

Keep in mind that all plants lose roots in transplanting. Removing one third of the branches of newly planted trees and shrubs will make them quicker to start in spring and when properly done, won't change the shape of the plant.

Business & Finance

BY MAURICE P. ANGLAND
Some of the close observers of business activity, are expressing a belief that business will definitely be better in 1962, but that likelihood of the improvement being of boom proportions is unlikely.

The lack of expected increases in home building, has been discouraging to some in this field. The legislation passed to aid home building, does not seem to have had the desired effect at this point. On a country-wide basis, there is a higher rate of vacancy in rental units, than experienced for some time.

Other construction such as industrial, commercial, and government, has about compensated for lack of desired residential building. The government figures on total construction are expected to reach a new peak this year. Government spending has been responsible for much of the increased total figure.

Defense expenditure in other than construction field, are becoming more apparent.

Those who analyze stock market movements thru observation of action by the various groups, as industrials, rails, and utilities, are impressed with market action in the rails and utilities. The firmness in rails and utilities, in view of these observers, confirms likelihood of a more active market on the up side.

The general cosmetic field is the object of greater interest by the investment world. Financial World reports that hair coloring agents and related preparations, are now among the rapidly expanding segments of the cosmetic industry.

Women using hair coloring agents, is estimated as high as one in three. Student of the field, express idea that the stigma attached to dyed hair, has become minor. The magazine reports results of a survey as disclosing that about 90 per cent of women under 35, have some hair complaint. Dan-druff was reported as top complaint.

Hair coloring is now reported to be of greater revenue value than permanent waves, to the beauty trade. The article states that hair coloring items had a February 5 to March 16, 1962, are the dates for the University of Illinois College of Agriculture's winter short course, according to Warren Wessels, assistant to the dean.

The winter short course, to be held on the Urbana campus, offers young farmers an opportunity to attend college classes for six weeks of study, Wessels said. The courses present up-to-date information on farm problems and techniques in a fast-changing agriculture.

Most of the students are young farmers who wish to expand their knowledge about agriculture. Anyone 18 years old or older may apply; ages have ranged up to 65 years. Women also may attend.

Besides attending discussion and laboratory sessions, short course students take part in many campus activities.

Short course costs range from $198 to $238, including tuition, fees, books and supplies, housing and meals.

A number of $100 scholarships are provided by the Illinois Future Farmers of America Foundation and member banks of the Illinois Banks Association.

Dean Louis B. Howard, College of Agriculture, says: "Our winter short course provides a fine opportunity for young farmers to keep abreast of recent developments in agriculture through 21 interesting and 47 per cent sales gain to reach a total of $67 million. It is pointed out that retail sales of perfumes, cosmetics, and toiletries, were about $1.8 million or an increase of 7 per cent.

The total hair care retail market is stated by the Drug Trade News, to be about $695 million last year or triple tooth paste volume. This hair care total, of course, includes hair tonic, shampoos, etc.

Hair sprays are an important use of aerosol pressurized products. Rayette, a firm concentrated largely in hair preparations, is reported to be working on an aerosol product which will permit change of hair coloring as easily as a woman changes lipstick or so it is said by the firm's president.

Plant breeders in the University of Illinois horticulture department continue to fight a relentless battle against fire blight—the scourge of the commercial pear industry. Because of the disease, it is almost impossible to grow high-quality pears in Illinois on a commercial basis, reports H. C. Barrett, in charge of much of the pear research conducted at the University of Illinois.

At present there is no good chemical control for fire blight, so the only practical method of combating the disease is to grow resistant varieties. And this is a long-time process, Barrett points out. So far, a variety called Farmingdale—a seedling pear—offers one of the best sources of resistance, but the quality of the fruit is poor, so the variety has no commercial value.

The oil industry and its penetration into the chemical field, has been a development of recent years. Recently reported research of the future in petrochemicals, includes plastic homes which will be fire-proof, carpets which never wear out, and chemicals to keep lawn growth down to point where once a month mowing, will suffice.

Actually the real question is not whether we can afford tax reform but whether we can afford to postpone it any longer.

When I look at thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars which thou hast established; what is man that thou art mindful of him, and the son of man that thou dost care for him?

Standing on the shores of Lake Michigan, a great sense of awe fills my spirit. Here is the mighty wonder of God stretching before me seemingly without end. It is a quiet expanse of rich blues gradually becoming a deeper grey as the evening shadows fall across the water.

Suddenly without warning, the lake may become a violet turbulent body of water. Its glorious blue depths distorted by tossing sand and the twisting breakers. It appears so much like a human being—one moment quiet and serene, and very beautiful; the next moment, angry

Wasick Stars

EAGLES WIN EASY
OVER OAK LAWN

It was all Eagle last Friday afternoon as Joe Devine's
"Mudders" trounced the sputtering Spartans of Oak Lawn, 27-0, in their own back yard.
A physically fit Dan Wasick, Sandburg left half, flashed some more of the form and speed that had been hampered earlier in the season by an injured ankle. Wasick carried 16 times for 103 yards. That's a 6.4
average running in the mud. In addition, he hooked two Lavine aerials, one a 68 yard stint for a touchdown.
In the last period, the six foot, 185 pound senior intercepted a Spartan pass on his 35 and ran it to the Oak Lawn
42. Seven plays later he went over from the four for his second touchdown which put him in the number two spot in the conference for scoring.
Jim Lavine, lanky Eagle
quarterback, did just about everything right calling the plays in the grey, cold afternoon air. Lavine split the heavy duty between Wasick and Dan's

sophomore running mate, Ernie Sharpe, occasionally spelling them using fullback Tom Richter or by keeping the ball himself. With cold hands and a muddy ball Lavine originated
but five passes. Four of them, amazingly accurate, were completed for a total of 101 yards.
One to Wasick became a touchdown.
Sharpe, leading scorer in the conference, was unable to break away on the murky turf. He was held to a mere 110 yards in 20
carries and a single touchdown.
Even that is an accomplishment any high school back would settle for. Sharpe's accurate toe accounted for three extra points. One kick was blocked.
Tom Richter, 5' 11", 170
pound halfback understudy, filled the fullback position for Vic Leatzow who is ailing with a kidney bruise received in the Evergreen Park game. Richter, carrying eight times, averaged just under four yards per with one tote paying off with six points.

The Eagle defense was merciless, continually breaking through the Spartan line to smear the runner or to rush
the passer. Mickey Cernak, Steve Johanson and Frank Mellott were in the Spartan backfield so often that they had to go to a "shotgun" offense to give the ball handler more time to get away or to pass. Al Grossman, Tom Richter and Dan Wasick were also standouts

on defense.

The Oak Lawners were able to net but 86 yards, 10 on the ground and 76 through the air.
The Eagles will take on an unpredictable Reavis team on Saturday at home. The kickoff will be at 2 p.m., after that anything can happen. The frosh-soph game starts at 12:30 p.m.

Flossmoor Beats L-W 19 0
To Wreck Homecoming

By PAUL BROWN

The Vikings of Homewood-Flossmoor tumbled the Knights
in their homecoming game Saturday afternoon, 19-0. Homewood scored one TD in each of the first three periods. All three came on passes.

The first came on a 43-yard pass from George Fischer to Ron Botts. The second, also from Fischer to Botts, covered 31 yards. The third came on the 3rd stanza on a pass from Fischer to John Sullivan covering 28 yards. Daryl Royer booted the conversion after the third touchdown.

The closest the Knights came to paydirt was early in the second quarter when they drove down to the H-F 22 yard line.
Although the Knights managed to out rush the Vikings, H-F picked up 192 yards passing to the Knights 19. Lincoln-Way intercepted two passes, one by Bill Wennlund and one by Joe Panicl. The Vikings picked up 11 first downs to the Knights 8.

The outstanding back for the Knights in the game was Ron Yunker who gained 65 yards running and completed two passes in six attempts. The outstanding defenseman was tackle, Jim DeHart. Jim made many fine tackles thruout the game, despite being hampered by a bad left leg.

Homewood - Flossmoor now stands at 3-2 in conference play while the Knights at 0-4-1, and overall the Knights are 1-4-1.
Next Friday afternoon the Knights play host to the Braves
of Bremen.

The Homewood - Flossmoor
frosh-soph also won, beating the Lincoln-Ways 33-0.

Hold Up Of Tax Causes
L-W High Board To Borrow

The Lincoln-Way high school board has sold sufficient tax warrants to meet its bond principal and interest due on Nov. 1, the first time in the school's nine year history that it was necessary to do such a thing.
In past years there was always sufficient funds on hand in the fall to meet the obligation on bond, the board said.
The amount due this year is $30,000. The deficiency was about $16,000.

The reason for the deficiency,
it was said, is because there is still some $110,000 due the district on 1960 taxes collectible
this year. In last week's paper it was inadvertently stated that the county school office was holding back about 25 per cent of the taxes. The county school office has nothing to do with distributing local tax money.

The county treasurer's office
will make another distribution
this fall, including moneys derived thru real estate tax sales
but there is a large sum there representing taxes paid under protest. There is also a substantial sum still not paid to the county treasurer.

Most of the railroad tax money is being held by the treasurer until the courts have acted upon their objections. It is said there are other tax objections still to be heard and until such cases are disposed of the money will stay where it is. If the objections are sustained the taxpayer gets his money back; if the objections are overruled then the taxing bodies will get the money.

Some months ago the Illinois supreme court held that the railroads were discriminated against.
There is $30,000 in taxes objected to by the railroads in the Lincoln-Way high school district, $20,000 for this year and $10,000 hanging over from last year.

Some of the delinquent accounts, of course, are represented by personal property.

In Cook county last week the state's attorney's office began assigning personal property tax bills to justices of the peace for collection. This marks a first--the first time any effort has been made in Cook county

to collect personal property taxes from individuals.

The state's attorney's office
of Will county attempted to do the same thing in this county-- but much earlier, but two of the J.P.'s, George Sangmeister,
of Mokena, and Robert Buchar, of Joliet, declining to act on grounds they lacked jurisdiction and the two have appealed to the appellate court so that avenue of collection is closed for the time being.

Alfred Krapf
Dies At 61

Alfred Krapf, 61, Green Garden died suddenly Monday afternoon (Oct. 23) in the home where he was born and lived all his life. Mr. Krapf had been in ill health but his death was unexpected.

He had farmed most of his life but of late years had been agent for the GBH-Way Homes, Inc., manufacturers of pre-fabricated homes. He formerly was an employee of the state,
being in charge of the truck
weighing station at the junction of U.S. 54 and Cicero ave.

Mr. Krapf was a trustee of the Green Garden Methodist church and secretary of the Green View Cemetery Association.

His father, William, preceded him in death but his mother Mrs.
Christina Krapf, of Manhattan, survives him. Also surviving are, his wife, the former Dorothy Platt, two sons, Stanley of Peotone and William, of Green Garden; two daughters, Carolyn, Mrs. Norman Gill, of Monroe, and Koreen, Mrs. Kenneth Heisner, of Beecher; one brother, Milton, of Manhattan, and seven grandchildren.

Removal was to the Klemm
funeral home, Manhattan, where friends called Wednesday between 2 and 4 and 7 and 10 p.m.
The body will be taken to the Green Garden Methodist church
at noon today (Thursday) to lie in state until 2 o'clock when services will be conducted with the Rev. James Swain officiating. Burial will be in Green View cemetery.
